Dear Ms. Ashley,

I apologize for not submitting my amended financial statement by November 24, 2020. Last year was a year of one extenuating circumstance after another. During the month of November, we were living with family after our home was destroyed during Hurricane Laura. Because of this, all of my constable files and paperwork were in storage and not easily accessible. Also due to the hurricane, our mail service was in disarray so although the notice of delinquency was dated on November 6th, I received it later in the month.

As if this wasn't stressful enough, my wife was eight months pregnant at the time and required frequent checkups because her pregnancy was considered high risk. Between doctor's visits, hurricane recovery efforts, and preparing for the arrival of my daughter, the constable paperwork completely slipped my mind.

Again, I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience my tardiness has caused.

Kind regards,

Christopher Fountain
